PREAMBLE

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this 2/2t day of april, 1992 by and between THE TOWNSHIP OF MAURICE RIVER in the County of Cumberland, a Municipal Corporation of the State of New Jersey, hereinafter referred to as the "EMPLOYER", and NEW JERSEY CIVIL SERVICE ASSOCIATION, CUMBERLAND COUNTY COUNCIL #18, hereinafter referred to as the "ASSOCIATION".

PURPOSE AND INTENT

The general purpose of this Agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment and to promote orderly and peaceful labor relations for the mutual interest of the Employer, the Employees, the Association and the citizens of the Township of Maurice River.

The parties recognize that the interests of the community and the employment security of the employees depend upon the Employer's success in establishing proper service to the community.

To these ends, the Employer and the Association encourage to the fullest degree productive and cooperative relations between their respective representatives at all levels as well as among all employees.

ARTICLE I. RECOGNITION OF RIGHTS/LIMITATIONS

A. Recognition of Association

Pursuant to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of the New Jersey Employer-Employees Relations Act, Chapter 303 of the Laws of 1968 (N.J.S.A. 34:13A-1 et seq.), as amended, the Employer does hereby recognize the Association as the sole and exclusive representative of all employees of the Township of Maurice River, excepting that this representation shall not extend to (1) any management executive or supervisor within the meaning of the afore-referenced Act, (2) any person employed on a part-time basis or (3) any person otherwise excluded by Law from the Bargaining Unit. A list of employment titles included in the Bargaining Unit represented by the Association herein is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Schedule "A".

B. Management Rights

- (1) The Employer hereby reserves and retains unto itself those powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it by law including, but not limited to, the right to (a) manage and administer the affairs, property and operations of Employer, (b) direct its working forces and operations and (c) hire, promote, assign and discipline employees in accordance with law.
- (2) The powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities of the Employer, as described above, and the exercise of discretion pursuant thereto, shall be limited only by the requirement of conformity with the Laws of the United States of America, the Laws of the State of New Jersey, the rules, regulations and/or directives promulgated thereunder including, but not limited to, the New Jersey Department of Personnel, the terms of this Collective Bargaining Agreement and the past practice of the parties when not in contravention of any of the foregoing authorities.

C. Prohibited Actions

- (1) The Employer and the Association agree that there shall not be any discrimination against any employee within the Bargaining Unit because of age, sex, marital status, race, color, religion, national origin, physical ability, political affiliation or Association membership.
- (2) During the term of this Agreement, the Association agrees not to engage in or support any strike, work stoppage, slow-down or other similiar concerted action by employees within the Bargaining Unit nor shall any Association representative engage in any individual action or conduct which has the purpose of inducing said employees to engage in such prohibited activities.
- agrees not to seek reprisals, penalize, discipline or otherwise discriminate against any individual Association representative or employee within the Bargaining Unit as a result of said individual asserting any right conferred upon said individual or the membership as a whole by the terms of this Collective Bargaining Agreement nor shall the Employer or any representative of Employer institute, engage in or support a lock-out of the employees within the Bargaining Unit.
- (4) The Association and the Employer, by and through any official, agent or representative, shall not intimidate, restrain, coerce or discriminate against any employee who refuses or fails to join the Association nor shall an individual employee's membership or non-membership in the Association be a condition of employment or continued employment.

ARTICLE II. ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATION

- A. Designation of Stewards/Alternates
- (1) There shall be one (1) duly selected representative of the Association from the membership of the Bargaining Unit, hereafter "Steward", and one (1) Alternate.
- (2) The Association has the exclusive right and discretion in the designation of the Steward and the Alternate as well as the delineation of their respective responsibilities and authority to act for and on behalf of the Association.
- (3) An Alternate will be provided the recognition and privileges afforded a Steward, as set forth in this Agreement, in any instance where a Steward is unable to perform his or her duties due to absence, illness or employment responsibilities or the Alternate is otherwise designated to do so by the Steward or Association.
- (4) The Association will provide the Employer with the names of the duly selected Steward and Alternate and will promptly notify the Employer of any changes in said designations during the term of this Agreement.

B. Access to Employees

(1) Association representatives will have appropriate and reasonable access to employees within the Bargaining Unit for the purpose of administering this Agreement and/or related Association business providing that said activity is confined to non-working hours (prior to and after the scheduled work day, lunch and break periods) unless prior approval is obtained from the appropriate representative of the Employer and said activity does not interfere with the work assignment(s) of the Steward and/or employees.

- (2) The Association shall be permitted to conduct meetings with the employees at the office location maintained by Employer, provided that space is available and approval is obtained in advance of the date and time of said meeting from the designated representative of the Employer.
- (3) The Association shall have access to a bulletin board prominently located in each of the general working areas maintained by Employer. The Association may post any appropriate material pertaining to Association business, providing that said material is not profane, obscene or defamatory in nature. Materials shall be posted or removed only by the Steward or other designated representative of the Association. All postings shall contain the signature of the Steward or such representative.
- (4) The Steward shall have the right to distribute information pertaining to Association business to employees at their desks/work stations during non-working hours.
- (5) In order to properly administer the terms of this Agreement, the Steward may utilize telephone and interoffice(s) mail systems with the prior approval of the designated representative of the Employer.

, (6) The Employer will permit a thirty (30) minute orientation session between any new employee and an Association representative within one (1) month of said employee's date of hire. Association representatives may utilize said session to familiarize said employee with the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement as well as related benefits of his or her employment and Association membership.

C. Leave for Association Representatives

- (1) The Steward shall be permitted during working hours without loss of pay to investigate and process a grievance on behalf of an employee in the Bargaining Unit and/or represent said employee at a grievance proceeding provided that same does not interfere with the work assignments of the Steward.
- (2) The Steward shall be permitted during working hours without loss of pay to attend approved conferences with appropriate representatives of Employer concerning the administration of the Collective Bargaining Agreement provided that same does not interfere with the work assignments of the Steward.
- (3) The Steward and Alternate shall be permitted a leave of absence with pay to attend the annual New Jersey Civil Service Association Convention. A certificate of attendance to said convention shall, upon request, be submitted by the Association representative in attendance. Said leave shall be inclusive of the duration of the convention with reasonable time for travel to and from said convention.

ARTICLE III. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Definitions

- (1) A "grievance" is a claim by an employee within the Bargaining Unit or the Association based upon the interpretation, application or violation of this Agreement, policies or administrative decisions or practices affecting one or more employees within the Bargaining Unit.
- (2) An "aggrieved person" is the person or the Association making the claim.
- (3) A "party in interest" is the person making the claim and any individual including the Association or the Employer who might be required to take action or against whom action might be taken in order to resolve the claim.

B. Purpose of Procedure

The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, equitable solutions to the problems which may from time to time arise affecting employees.

Both parties agree that these proceedings will be kept as informal and confidential as may be appropriate at any level of the procedure.

C. Procedure

(1) Level One - Supervisor

An aggrieved person shall first submit the grievance in writing to his or her supervisor within ten (10) working days of its occurrence or within ten (10) working days of the aggrieved person having knowledge or being reasonably expected to have knowledge of its occurrence. Failure to so act shall constitute an abandonment of said grievance.

(2) Level Two - Department Head

with the disposition of his or her grievance at Level One, or if a decision has not been rendered within ten (10) working days of submission of the grievance, he or she may submit the grievance in writing to his or her Department Head within ten (10) working days of the decision at Level One or within ten (10) working days from the last day on which the decision should have been rendered at Level One, whichever is sooner.

(3) Level Three - Township Committee

with the disposition of the grievance at Level Two or if a decision has not been rendered within ten (10) working days of submission of the grievance at said level, the aggrieved person may submit the grievance in writing to the Township committee within ten (10) working days of the decision at Level Two or within ten (10) working days from the last day on which the decision should have been rendered at Level Two, whichever is sooner. The aggrieved person and/or a representative of the Association shall be permitted to appear and present the grievance before the Township Committee.

(4) Level Four - Binding Arbitration

(a) If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Level Three, or if a decision has not been rendered by the Township Committee within thirty (30) days of submission of the grievance to said Committee, the aggrieved person may request in writing that the Association submit the grievance to arbitration. Said request must be submitted to the Association with notice to the designated representative of Employer within ten (10) working days of the decision at Level Three or ten (10) working days from the last day on which the decision should have been rendered at Level Three, whichever is sooner. If the Association, in its sole discretion, determines that it is appropriate to submit the grievance to arbitration, it may do so within ten (10) working days of receipt of the request from the aggrieved person.

- (b) Within ten (10) working days of written notice of submission to arbitration, the Employer and the Association shall request a list of arbitrators from either the American Arbitration Association or the Public Employees Relations Commission. The parties shall then be bound by the rules and procedures of the applicale arbitration service.
- (c) The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding upon the parties.
- (d) In the event the arbitrability of a grievance is at issue between the parties, jurisdiction to resolve the issue shall rest solely with the arbitrator.
- (e) The costs for the services of the arbitrator, including per diem expenses, if any, and actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses, if applicable, shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Association. The Employer shall provide the hearing room.

Any other expenses incurred including the cost of a transcript, if applicable, shall be paid by the party incurring same.

(f) If the arbitrator in his/her sole discretion determines that either party has acted in bad faith, the the afore-described costs of the arbitration may be assessed by the arbitrator against said party.

D. Right of Representation

- (1) Any aggrieved person may represent himself or herself at all stages of the gricvance procedure or, at his or her option, by authorized Association representative(s), including counsel retained by the Association, or retained counsel of the aggrieved person's own choice.
- (2) If an aggrieved person chooses to retain legal counsel of his or her own choice, as described immediately above, the Association shall not be responsible for the payment of fees or expenses of said counsel.

E. Rights of Association

- (1) Whether an employee is represented by the Association or not, the Association shall receive separate notice of the decision from the Employer rendered at each level of the grievance procedure.
- (2) The Association may continue a grievance through all applicable levels of this procedure even though the aggrieved person does not wish to do so if said grievance may affect or otherwise has application to a group or class of employees within the Bargaining Unit.

Association, a grievance affects a group of employees within the Bargaining Unit, the Association may submit such grievance directly to the appropriate Department Head or other designated representative of the Employer and the processing of such grievance shall commence at Level Two.

F. Miscellaneous

- (1) Decisions rendered at Levels One, Two and Three herein shall be in writing, setting forth the decision and the reasons therefore and shall be transmitted promptly to all parties in interest and to the Association. Decisions rendered at Level Four shall be in accordance with the procedures set forth in sub-paragaph (C)(4), above.
- (2) The time limitations indicated at each level should be considered as maximum limitations and binding upon the parties. Every effort should be made to expedite the process. Said time limitations may, however, be extended by mutual agreement in writing.
- (3) Reprisals of any nature, kind or degree shall not be taken by the Employer or by its representatives, agents, or employees against any party in interest, any representative or member of the Association or any other participant in the grievance procedure by reason of such participation.
- (4) The form for the filing/processing of a grievance is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Schedule

- or elsewhere in this Agreement shall not be construed as requiring the Association to submit a grievance to arbitration or to represent an employee in any proceedings instituted with the New Jersey Department of Personnel (formerly the New Jersey Civil Service Commission). The Association's decision to process any grievance at any step or to terminate the grievance proceedings at any step shall be final as to the interests of the grievant and the Association.
- (6) Any provision contained within this Article shall not be construed to discourage or prohibit an aggrieved person and/or the Association from pursuing informal efforts with the Employer to effectuate a prompt and amicable resolution of the matter in controversy.

ARTICLE IV. SALARY AND RELATED COMPENSATION

A. SALARY

- (1) The parties acknowledge the existence and continuation during the term of this Collective Bargaining Agreement of a salary program for employees within the bargaining unit.

- (a) An employee within the Bargaining Unit disabled because of a work-related injury or illness may, upon recommendation of the Employer and approval of the Department of Personnel, be granted a leave of absence with pay from funds appropriated for this purpose and in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated for same.
- (b) Any part of the salary or wages paid or payable to an employee for such leave shall be reduced by the amount of a worker's compensation award received by the employee under the New Jersey Worker's Compensation Act.
- (c) Such leave may be granted for a period not to exceed six (6) months from the date of injury or illness and an extension of same not to exceed an additional six (6) months, said leave to be based on medical proof of the injury or illness and the continued disability of such employee.
- (d) When such leave is granted, an employee shall not be charged ordinary sick leave or vacation. However, if the approved leave expires, an employee may utilize sick leave or vacation if required to remain off duty.
- (e) If an application for leave as described herein is rejected by the Employer, an employee may appeal such rejection in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Personnel.

(7) Jury Duty/Witness Attendance Leave

- (a) Employees within the Bargaining Unit shall be granted leave with pay when summoned to perform jury duty as required by law.
- (b) Employees within the Bargaining Unit shall be granted leave with pay when required by subpoena to appear before a court, legislative committee or judicial or quasi-judical body.
- (c) An affected employee shall notify the Employer immediately of the requirement for the leave described herein and subsequently furnish proof that the employee performed the duty for which the employee was granted such leave.

(8) Military Training

An employee within the Bargaining Unit who is a member of the National Guard, naval militia or a reserve component of any of the Armed Forces of the United States required to undergo annual field training or annual active duty for training shall be granted leave with full pay for such periods as provided by the applicable statute or regulation.

B. LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

(1) General

(a) Upon written application to the Employer, an employee within the Bargaining Unit may be granted a leave of absence without pay for a period not to exceed six (6) months and an extension of same not to exceed an additional six (6) months with the approval of the Employer and upon notice to the Department of Personnel.

- (b) Further leave in exceptional or emergent circumstances may be granted by the Employer where it is in the public interest to do so upon approval of the Department of Personnel.
- (c) Vacation, sick time and personal days shall not accumulate during such leave without pay.

(2) Child Care Leave

Child care leave may be granted by the Employer under the same terms and conditions as all other leaves without pay.

(3) Active Military Service Leave

- (a) An employee within the Bargaining Unit who enters upon active duty with the military or naval service in time of war or emergency shall be granted a leave of absence for the period of such service and three (3) months thereafter.
- (b) An employee who enlists in a reserve component of the Armed Forces of the United States or is otherwise required to perform an initial period of active duty for training pursuant to the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 (Reserve Enlistment Program) shall be granted a leave of absence without pay for such period of training.

C. Continuation Of Benefits

Except as otherwise specifically set forth elsewhere in this Article, benefits described within this Agreement shall continue to accrue during any approved Leave of Absence unless there is such coverage or benefit provided the employee from other or alternative sources and then the benefits described herein shall be suspended during said alternative coverage.

ARTICLE VII. PERSONNEL

A. Promotion, Transfer and Work Assignments

(1) Promotions

Promotional qualifications and procedures utilized by the Employer will be in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Personnel.

(2) Transfers

Qualifications and procedures for the transfer of an employee within the Bargaining Unit from one employment classification to another by the Employer will be in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Personnel.

(3) Work Assignments

- (a) An employee within the Bargaining Unit shall fulfill to the best of his or her ability the duties and responsibilities of his or her position.
- (b) An employee within the Bargaining Unit transferred or assigned to duties outside his or her employment classification for a period in excess of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days shall receive appropriate compensation on the same basis as if said employee had been provisionally promoted to a classification encompassing said duties.

B. Discipline

(1) Just Cause

Any discipline of an employee within the Bargaining Unit including, but not limited to, a written reprimand, suspension, fine, demotion or discharge, shall be for just cause and in conformity with applicable regulations of the Department of Personnel. Demotions or discharges resulting from layoffs/bumping procedures required or permitted by the Department of Personnel shall not be considered discipline herein.

(2) Representation

An employee within the Bargaining Unit is entitled to have an Association representative present at any conference or hearing held by the Department of Personnel, any departmental hearing held by the Employer and any conference between an employee and any representative(s) of the Employer which has, as its purpose, the implementation or review of disciplinary action to be taken against an employee.

D. Personnel File

(1) Access

Upon reasonable request, an employee within the Bargaining Unit shall be given the opportunity to review all documentation contained within his or her personnel file. The Employer shall have the right to require said review to take place in the presence of a representative of the Employer at a time specified by the Employer. An employee shall not be permitted to remove the subject file from the premises of Employer.

(2) Notice of Entries

An employee within the Bargaining Unit shall be provided with a copy of any documentation or material, whether adverse in nature or not, which is placed in his or her personnel file. Any material of anonymous origin shall not be placed in an employee's personnel file.

(3) Written Response

An employee within the Bargaining Unit shall shall be permitted to file a written response to any material in his or her personnel file, either adverse or negative in nature, and such response will be attached to the materials in question and retained in said personnel file.

(4) Applicability

The foregoing provisions shall apply to any file maintained by the Employer with respect to the employment of an individual employee regardless of how such file is characterized by the Employer. Any material subject to the provisions herein withheld from an employee shall not be the basis for any subsequent disciplinary action.

ARTICLE VIII. CIVIL SERVICE

This Agreement is intended to comply with the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New Jersey, respectively, the New Jersey Employer-Employees Relations Act, Chapter 303 of the Laws of 1968 (N.J.S.A. 34:13A-1 et seq.), as amended, the New Jersey Civil Service Act, Chapter 112 of Laws of 1986 (N.J.S.A. 11A:6-16 et seq.), as amended, all other statutes as enacted by the Legislature of the State of New Jersey applicable to public employees, (whether or not said statutes are specifically referred to in this Agreement), the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission and the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Department of Personnel (formerly The New Jersey Civil Service Commission). In the event there is a conflict between any term or provision of this Agreement and the foregoing statutory or regulatory provisions, it is the expressed intent of the parties that the foregoing statutory and/or regulatory provisions be deemed controlling and binding upon the parties herein.

ARTICLE IX. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Savings Clause/Past Practice

Except as this Agreement shall otherwise provide, all terms and conditions of employment applicable on the effective date of this Agreement to employees within the Bargaining Unit, whether established by statute, rule, regulation, resolution, administrative policy, procedure or past practice, shall continue to be so applicable during the term of this Agreement.

B. Severability

It is understood and agreed that, if any provision of this Agreement is determined to be contrary to law, such provision shall not be deemed valid and subsisting, except to the extent permitted by law, but all other provisions shall continue in full force and effect, the remaining provisions of this Agreement not being affected thereby.

C. Breach of Agreement

The waiver of any breach or condition of this Agreement by either party shall not constitute a precedent in the further enforcement of the terms and conditions herein.

D. Embodiment of Agreement

This document constitutes the sole and complete agreement between the parties of those terms and conditions governing the employment of employees within the Bargaining Unit as represented by the Association. Upon mutual agreement of the parties, which shall be in writing, the parties may further amplify or interpret the terms and conditions embodied in this Agreement.

E. Printing/Dissemination of Agreement

The Employer shall be responsible for the printing and dissemination of this Collective Bargaining Agreement to each employee in the Bargaining Unit during the term herein.

ARTICLE X. TERM OF AGREEMENT

A. Term

This Agreement shall be in effect until December 31, 1993, and year to year thereafter, unless modified by a subsequent Agreement.

B. Negotiation of Successor Agreement

Within ninety (90) days of the expiration date of this Agreement, the parties shall commence negotiations regarding the terms and conditions of a new Agreement.

If the Public Employment Relations Commission should modify the afore-described time period in which the parties are obligated to commence negotiations, the time period so modified shall apply herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused these presents to be signed on the day and year first above written.
